Özyeğin University Sectoral Orienteering 2018 with the main theme of "Industry 4.0" was realized in between 5-10 March 2018. Faculty of Architecture and Design supported Sectoral Orienteering 2018 with one exhibition and two workshops and done sectorial panel, and four sectorial talks. The Faculty of Architecture Student's Photography Exhibition organized by Metin Çavuş in Entrance Hall of Academic Building 3. "Portfolio Workshop" by Orhan Hacıhasanoğlu, "Sketch and Rapid Visualization Workshop" by Ali O. İlhan and İlker Fatih Özorhon, and sectorial talks "Video Mapping" by Ali Devrim Işıkkaya, "PAB-EDU Innovative Educational Building Design" by Pinar Gökbayrak and Burçin Yıldırım, "Ux Design, User Experience Design" by İzlem Akman, and finally "OzU MSc, PhD Programs" by İpek Yeğinsu and Aslıhan Ergin were the activities of Sectoral Orienteering program. Panel entitled "Transformation of Design" moderated by Alpay Er, and lecturers by Gamze Güven, Gülay Özkan, Efe Gözen and Eray Yüksek was realized at 9th March 2018. A mock interview by Arkitera was realized also organized in Sectoral Orienteering.

- April 25-26, 2018, ÖZÜ Campus, "Past-Present-Future: İSTANBUL" / Kamil GÜLEY, Afet COŞKUN, Ahenk DAMGACI
- Hatıye Garip presented her illustration works and organized a "One-Page Comic Workshop" at Özyeğin University Communication Design Department COD 202 - Design Studio II. Hatıye Garip was invited to present her works and organize a workshop to Sabancı University Visual Arts & Visual Communication Design Department Illustration as Communication Course on 27th of February.

- February 23, 2018, workshop within the scope of the course "SEC301 Sectoral Solutions", Asst. Prof. Dr. Ali O. İlhan - Res. Asst. Burak Taşdizen explored potential problems the industry could face due to Industry 4.0 Transition and speculated over Conferences and lectures in the context of "İstanbul Design Meetings" by Istanbul Institute of Design and "Design for Interiors" by Department of Interior Architecture and Environmental Design were continued in January - March 2018 period.

National Symposium of Architectural Design Research II: Future of Cities will be held at 26-27 April 2018 at Özyeğin University Çekmeköy Campus. A student project exhibition and awards; 5 different workshops will be organized in program of symposium.

News

OZU FAD have new full-time faculty members in 2017-2018 Spring Term;

Prof. Dr. Alper ÜNLÜ

PhD - Architecture, ITU; Environment-Behaviour Studies, University of Wisconsin Milwaukee, 1987

Masters - Architecture, ITU, 1980

Bachelors - Architecture, ITU, 1979

Prof. Dr. Alper Ünlü obtained his B.Arch from Istanbul Technical University, Faculty of Architecture in 1979, M.Sc in Architecture from ITU-MMLS Program in Architecture in 1980. He attended "Ph.D. Program in Environment-Behavior Studies" in University Wisconsin Milwaukee between 1984-1985 as "Aga Khan Award for Architecture" scholar, and obtained his Ph.D. in Architecture from ITU Science and Technology Institute in 1987. He taught architectural design and theory courses in ITU as Assistant and Associate Professor between 1988-1990, and architectural design and post-occupancy evaluation between 1991-1993, King Faisal University, KSA. He continued to teach architectural design in undergraduate level, environment-behavior theories, architecture and epistemology in post graduate levels between 2002-2018 as professor in Architecture of ITU. His research focuses on architectural design theories, environment-behavior studies and potential methods with which to tackle these problems using design thinking methodology.

Competitions

- Capture the Interaction 2018” Digital Photography Competition for High School Students. Final Submission
Date: 23 April 2018.
Announcements of the results: 02 May 2018. For more information please click on the link.

Exhibitions

- Hediye Garip has been short-listed for the ILLUSTRARTE 2018, International Biennial of Children's Book Illustration (January, 2018)

Istanbul Design Meetings

- February 08, 2018/ÖZÜ Campus AB4-12:00-13:30 / Assoc. Prof. Dr. İnanç Işıl YILDIRIM "Human space relations at sea: Interior design for yachts"
- March 09, 2018/ÖZÜ Campus AB3-348 12:00-13:30 / Pinar SEZGİNALP "Urban transformation in Moda residential area".

theories, space syntax theory and epistemology.

Research Interests: Architectural Design Theories, Environment-Behavior Studies and Theories, Space Syntax Theory for Architecture, Architectural Epistemology, Vernacular Architecture and Cultural Environment, Post-Occupancy Evaluation, Disaster and Emergency Management

Assist Prof. Ece KALAYCIOĞLU, Ph.D.

PhD - Construction Sciences (Architecture), ITU, 2017

Masters - Environmental Control and Construction Technology (Architecture), ITU, 2010

Bachelors - Architecture, ITU, 2007

Dr. Ece Kalaycioğlu completed her B.Sc. degree in Department of Architecture of Istanbul Technical University in 2007. She started her M.Sc. studies in the same university and between 2008 and 2009 she completed a thesis research about building performance directives and energy certification systems in Politecnico di Torino. She obtained her M.Sc. degree in 2010. Finally, in 2017 she completed her Ph.D. in Istanbul Technical University. Between 2009 and 2016, she worked in EKOMIM Ecological Architectural Consultancy firm. Beginning from September 2017, she works as a lecturer in Özyeğin University and teaches the Built Environmental Control Studio Courses. Her areas of specialty are building energy performance, lighting and daylighting performance modeling and simulations, energy efficient and sustainable architectural design development, thermal and visual comfort analyses, zero/nearly zero energy/carbon building design, renewable energy systems and district energy systems.

Research Interests: building energy performance, lighting and daylighting performance modeling and simulations, energy efficient and sustainable architectural design development, thermal and visual comfort analyses, zero/nearly zero energy/carbon building design, renewable energy systems and district energy system

Assist Prof. Neşe Ganiç SAĞLAM, Ph.D.

PhD - Construction Sciences, ITU, 2017

Masters - Environmental Control and Construction Technologies, ITU, 2012

Bachelors - Architecture, ITU

Dr. Neşe GANIÇ SAĞLAM, graduated as an architect from Istanbul Technical University (ITU) Faculty of Architecture among the top third graduates of the faculty. Afterwards she completed her M.Sc. in Environmental Control and Construction Technologies from ITU in 2012 and Ph.D. in Construction Sciences from the same university in 2017.

Supported by scholarships for six months between 2011-2012 and for one year between 2016-2017, she conducted her researches in Politecnico di Torino Department of Energy. She had been working as a Research Assistant in ITU Faculty of Architecture between years 2011 and 2017. She was involved in several research projects and has national and international publications on cost effective energy efficiency in buildings, nearly zero energy buildings and green building certification systems.

Research Interests: Building physics, Environmental control, Building energy efficiency, Sustainability and Green Buildings, Nearly zero energy buildings

The work of Dr. Sevil Yazıcı titled “A Material-based Integrated Computational Design Model in Architecture” is granted with a patent (No: PT 2014/00551; Joint-Inventors: Leyla Tanaçan and Sevil Yazıcı).

Dr. Sevil Yazıcı will work the Scientific Committee of the XII. Computational Design Research in Architecture Symposium, hosted by Suleyman Demirel University Faculty of Architecture. http://sempozyum.sdu.edu.tr/mstas-2018/?page_id=2836&lang=en

Proceedings International Network of Faculty of Architecture and Design

Student mobility in university education give motivation to students to different approaches in design and architectural education. Students of Özyeğin University, Faculty of Architecture has two different mobility opportunities in undergraduate and graduate education. Erasmus student and staff exchange and global exchange agreements with some universities are these opportunities. Faculty of Architecture and Design has student and staff exchange in the context of Erasmus; with 3 universities from Portugal. These universities are "Escola Superior Artes a Design", "Escola Superior Artistic do Porto", "University of Porto". 4 universities form Italy; which are; "Universitadegli Studidella Campagnia -Luigi Vanvitelli", "Politecnico di Bari", "Free University Bozen-Bolzano", "Sapienza-Universita di Roma"; 2 universities from Spain; "University of Cardenal Herrera", "University de Sevilla". Erasmus exchange agreements from other countries as followed: "University of Pecs" from Hungary, "Lodz University of Technology" from Polland, "LUCA School of Arts" from Belgium, "University of Thessaly" from Greece, "University of Applied Sciences and Arts Western Switzerland" from Switzerland, "Vilnues College of Design" from Lithuania. The second type of exchange system is called "Global". We have agreements for exchanging students with following universities: "Sejong University" and "Kookmin University" form South Korea, "Tongji University" from China, "The Sustainable Design School" from France,

Faculty of Architecture and Design are the members of following international associations.

CUMULUS (International Association of Universities and Colleges of Art, Design and Media)

WDO World Design Organization (International Council of Societies of Industrial Design)

EAAE (European Association for Architectural Education)

ico-D (International Council of Design)
