The Piranesi Prix de Rome, a university competition (launched in 2003 and today at the XXII edition), is open to students from architectural schools around the world joining Villa Adriana to wait for a two-week workshop.

Students can earn 3 ECTS credits for attending the workshop by enrolling in the summer school elective course ARCH 460 in the Faculty of Art and Design, taught by Dr. Luca Orlandi.

You may check out the related brochure for the details.
